

SAFER TOGETHER

Strengthening the Foundations of Officer Safety and Wellness

The Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA) VALOR Program's Safer Together Campaign emphasizes and strengthens the link between officer safety and wellness and community trust.

Among all safety and wellness factors, a healthy and positive community climate vis-à-vis police-community relations may be one of the most important universal safeguards against harmful stress and physical dangers.

AT A GLANCE

- Provides law enforcement training designed to strengthen the foundations of safety and wellness
- Offers a community engagement toolkit to promote positive interactions and mutual trust (coming soon)
- Inspires police and community members to contribute to each other's safety and well-being
- Promotes public confidence in law enforcement
- Builds positive partnerships between police and communities with the shared goal of reducing crime and ensuring safety and wellness for all

MORE ABOUT THE CAMPAIGN

Safer Together provides a practical framework for communities and officers to support each other under a shared umbrella of safety, wellness, and trust.

Safer Together taps into the unique ability that officers have to influence local community climate, while calling on leaders and community members to join and support officers who protect and care for our communities.

Safer Together empowers officers, community members, and leaders to renew and strengthen relationships by making the most of every interaction to enhance safety, wellness, and trust.

NO-COST SAFER TOGETHER COURSES

Safer Together Executive Briefing: This training, offered in-person and virtually, provides law enforcement executives with a brief, broad overview of this new national initiative to better understand the importance of encouraging their officers to attend Safer Together training and implement its principles in their agencies.

Safer Together Command-Level Forum: This engaging in-person session for command-level staff provides actionable skills and strategies to implement into your agency's culture that address challenging perceptions and help your people make the most of every interaction.

Safer Together Frontline Officer Workshop: This in-person workshop intended for frontline officers stresses the imperative of building trust as a foundational basis to improve relationships between officers and their community members, enhance safety and wellness, and reduce crime.

Safer Together Matchbook: This highly interactive course is conducted in three parts: a live, virtual session to kick off the training; a self-paced, online portion; and a live, virtual class to conclude. Officers will gain actionable skills and strategies that they can use to make the most of every interaction, which will result in reducing stress and enhancing everyone's safety and wellness.
