

Casualty Care and Rescue Tactics
Practical Skill Sheet

Control Bleeding using an OLAEST™ Modular Pressure Bandage

Task	Completed
	1st	2nd	3rd
Remove the OLAEST™ pressure bandage from the manufactures sterile; vacuum sealed packaging.	P / F	P / F	P / F
Wrap the OLAEST™ pressure bandage with the gauze pad side towards the primary wound.	P / F	P / F	P / F
Utilize the additional gauze provide within the OLAEST™ bandage for additional packing or entrance/exit wound coverage PRIOR to wrapping the bandage around the wound.	P / F	P / F	P / F
Applied the OLAEST™ pressure bandage effectively and tightly.	P / F	P / F	P / F
Properly utilizes the plastic cup attached to the bandage for pinpoint direct pressure accuracy.	P / F	P / F	P / F
Student knows the different uses of the sterile, large plastic sheet also contained within the OLAEST™ pressure bandage. This includes how to cover and abdominal evisceration or sucking chest wounds.	P / F	P / F	P / F
Student also knows that plastic cup attached to the bandage can be utilized as a protective cup for an eye injury.	P / F	P / F	P / F
Student shall verbalize that any time QuickClot® Combat Gauze™ is used; it should be tightly secured with a Pressure Dressing as well.	P / F	P / F	P / F

Critical Criteria:

- _____ Did not place the OLAEST™ pressure bandage appropriately directly over the wound.
- _____ Did not wrap the bandage tight enough to maintain constant pressure to control the bleeding.
- _____ Did not secure the OLAEST™ pressure bandage properly.
- _____ Performed the procedure in a manner that was dangerous to the casualty.

Evaluator's Comments: _____

Student Name: _____ Date: _____

Evaluator: _____ Pass: _____ Fail: _____